

Learn to play an instrument with Slough Music Service

Instrumental music lessons can help your child's overall development – enhancing learning outcomes in school as well as improving team work, perseverance and confidence.

Slough Music Service is part of Slough Borough Council, and is subsidised by Arts Council England so you can be sure that we have strict service and safety standards and we receive funding so we can keep fees as low as possible. All our staff are subject to regular enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks and safeguarding training, and also receive regular training to update and enhance their skills.

Lessons happen in term time in school during the day. We communicate regularly with parents through a notebook system so you can be sure of what your child is learning and the progress they are making. All children who take lessons are also eligible to join Slough Music Centre where they can learn to play and sing with others and perform in regular concerts.

We can provide lessons in piano (keyboard), violin, viola, cello, flute, clarinet, saxophone, trumpet, trombone, saxophone, drum kit, ukulele and guitar.

Under normal conditions we offer group lessons which are excellent value and work well for many beginners but, due to Covid-19 restrictions these are not possible until restrictions are lifted. In the meantime we have extended our subsidised rates to lower income families to the 7 lesson per term option which will provide children with personalised individual lessons
